

TEMPLE
EMUNAH

Responding to your Adult Child's Interfaith Choices

A program for parents of adult children who are inter-dating or intermarried.

Monday, November 14, Tuesday, December 13

and

Monday, February 6.

Minyan at 7:30pm, followed by presentation and discussion at 8:00pm.

Please join us for one or all of these sessions.

You're a member of a thriving Conservative Jewish congregation. Your adult child is dating or has married someone who is not Jewish. Temple Emunah's Keruv Committee invites you to discuss questions you may be asking, such as:

- What do we want for our children? Should we tell them?
- How do I respond to my child's choices?
- Should I express my opinion? If so, what is the best way to do so?
- How do I address my own feelings?
- How should I relate to my child's partner and other family members?
- Are there ways for grandparents to nurture the Jewish identity of grandchildren being raised in interfaith families?

Elana Kling Perkins, LICSW, is an educator, therapist, and facilitator at Perspectives: Jewish Living through the Lifecycle, a unique service that incorporates a Jewish dimension to help people successfully navigate life transitions.

Questions? Contact Julie Greenberg at keruv@templeemunah.org