

TEMPLE EMUNAH 55+ CLUB

DAY TRIP TO STRAWBERY BANKE SUNDAY, OCTOBER 30TH, 2011

PRELIMINARY ANNOUNCEMENT - COMPLETE DETAILS TO FOLLOW

Through its restored houses, its featured exhibits, its historic landscapes and gardens, and its interpretive programs, Strawberry Banke tells the stories of the many generations who settled in the Portsmouth, NH, community from the late 17th to the mid-20th century. Significantly, this site was rescued from the poorly conceived urban renewal policies of the 1950s by conscientious, far sighted citizens. Originally named Strawberry Banke by early (1630) British settlers for the wild berries growing there, Strawberry Banke today is unique among outdoor history museums - tracing 375 years of history in one of America's oldest continuously occupied neighborhoods. The 10-acre site, with its authentically restored houses and shops, period gardens, and costumed role players, presents the daily lives of ordinary people who lived here - from Colonial times to World War II, from the mundane to the elegant, from economic boom to war time austerity - in engaging and accessible ways. Strawberry Banke Museum is a capsule of New England seaport life across four centuries.

- Open to all ... a great trip for children, parents and grandparents.
- Leave Temple Emunah Sunday morning and travel by motorcoach to Strawberry Banke in Portsmouth, NH.
