

History, Ideology, and Challenges of the Conservative Movement

With Mike Rosenberg

SCHEDULE

October 18 & 25,
And November 1, 2015
9:45 AM-11:00 AM
Sunday Mornings
This class is FREE!

Too often the Conservative Movement is defined by what it is not. These sessions will explore our movement as an affirmative, exploring its origin, theology, challenges and opportunities.

Mike Rosenberg has been Temple Emunah President and Religious Committee chair during his 38 years as a member of the temple. He has been preparing Emunah Bar and Bat mitzvah candidates since 1989, leading the teen High Holy Days service for about 15 years, and taught interpretation of prayer in the former Temple Emunah high school.

A Development Officer at Maimonides School since 1987, Mike recently completed a lengthy term on the Board of the Synagogue Council of Massachusetts.

Walk-ins are accepted but RSVPs are encouraged.
