Pavel Haas taking bow after a performance of his Study for Strings in the Terezin Concentration Camp

Please join us on Sunday, April 23, at 7:30 PM for our annual Yom HaShoah commemoration. There will be a performance by a live orchestral ensemble of Pavel Haas' "Study for Strings," composed & performed in the Terezin Concentration Camp. There will also be a performance by the Mak'haylah of part of Erich Zeisl's Requiem Ebraico, composed after the war in honor and memory of the composer's parents, who were murdered by the Nazis. We will be showing a short film clip of the Terezin Concentration Camp Orchestra playing Haas' "Study for Strings" in 1944.
