

Columbus Day Community Hike in Lexington

Monday, October 9, 2017 @ 10:00 AM

Sponsored by The Family Ed Committee

All Temple Emunah members and their friends are invited to join Rabbi Lerner, Jodie Parmer and members of the Family Ed Committee on Monday, October 9, starting at 10:00 AM, as we enjoy nature and our lovely surroundings right here in Lexington with a family-friendly hike! We will meet at the Minute Man Visitor Center in Lexington, 3113 Marrett Road, which has plenty of parking and a center with bathrooms and information, and then walk towards the Hartwell Tavern. Along the way, Rabbi Lerner will lead discussions on nature, spirituality, and Sukkot. This event is free and no RSVP necessary. We hope you can join us!

Please note - we ask that you bring your own food for your family, as well as a bag for your garbage (there are no garbage cans along the path). Also, the path is not paved.
