

Zumba Dance Class!

To benefit the Billy Dalwin Pre-School

Sunday, April 28, 9:45 AM, in the Rubinovitz Social Hall

An hour of zumba, dancing, and high-energy fun! Led by Pre-School mom and Temple Member Joanna Katz of Dance Rainbow in Lexington, this class is open to all levels of fitness. Zumba is a cardio dance workout that combines Latin and international rhythms creating a dynamic, exhilarating and effective fitness program. Joanna's fun, vibrant non-competitive teaching style puts students right at ease. Support the Pre-School, work up a sweat, and have a blast with your friends! Cost is $15 and all proceeds go towards the Pre-School Scholarship fund. There will also be fun raffle prizes available!

Joanna is a choreographer, dancer, and middle school teacher who is an avid Zumba enthusiast. She has taught jazz and tap classes to children and adults, and has choreographed for several college dance teams and companies. She holds a Master's degree in Teaching from Simmons College in Boston, has studied dance extensively with Lynn Simonson in NYC, and is a certified Simonson Technique Jazz instructor.

Currently, she studies modern dance with Deborah Abel. Joanna is also certified in both Yoga and Zumba. She loves teaching Zumba because it brings the joy of dance to everyone, regardless of age, gender, or ability. For more information on Zumba or Joanna's class offerings, contact her at: Joanna@DanceRainbow.com.

RSVP to Jodie Parmer at jparmer@templeemunah.org if you think you might attend, but walk-ins are also welcome!

This event is for adults only (18 years or older).