

Join us at Temple Emunah for

An Evening of Jazz

The Rebecca Zola Quintet

Saturday, February 23, 2019

Doors Open at 7:45 PM

Music to start at 8:00 PM

The Rebecca Zola Quintet is made up of musicians from both Israel and the United States, all of whom are currently based in New York City, with the exception of Rebecca. The group comprises of Rebecca Zola and Gaya Feldheim Schorr on vocals, Guy Moskovich on piano, Isaac Levien on bass, and Zebadiah Stern on drums. The group plays their own arrangements of jazz standards, some of their favorite compositions with Hebrew lyrics, as well as original compositions by Rebecca. Rebecca and Gaya create unique vocal harmonies, and also improvise together and with the rest of the group.

Rebecca has performed internationally, including at the Bern International Jazz Festival in Switzerland, at venues around Israel, and around the United States. She is currently based in Israel where she is studying music and ethnomusicology at Hebrew University in Jerusalem. Rebecca is extremely excited to bring this special group of musicians to her hometown community at Temple Emunah.

TEMPLE
EMUNAH

The Israel Committee is thrilled to be bringing the Rebecca Zola Quintet to Temple Emunah for an evening of Jazz Music. Cost for the evening is $15/ Person in advance, $20 Door Price. Vegetarian appetizers and desserts will be served. Please RSVP to Jodie Parmer: jparmer@templeemunah.org.

Don't miss this musical event by one of our own members!