

Israel Movie Night

Wednesday, February 13, 2019 @ 7:45 PM

In honor of the recently deceased acclaimed Israeli author Amos Oz, The Israel Committee will be showing the film A Tale of Love and Darkness on Wednesday, February 13, starting at 7:45 PM in the Rubinovitz Social Hall.

This movie, which is based on Oz's international best-seller, details the experiences of his youth, during the early years of the State of Israel and the end of the British Mandate for Palestine. The film highlights the author's relationship with his mother, played by Natalie Portman, who also directed the film, and shows his beginnings as a writer. The New York Times hailed Portman's directorial debut as "an elegant and intimate movie, a thing of nostalgic whispers and sighs rather than polemical slogans and shouts."

This program is FREE and light refreshments will be served.
For questions, contact Eyal Dvir at eyalzdvir@gmail.com.

