Ivrit la-Kol: Hebrew for All, an adult Hebrew literacy collaborative, will begin its 22nd year of providing and supporting Hebrew literacy in the community. The mission of Ivrit la-Kol is to enable all individuals, regardless of skill level, to acquire, improve or enhance their knowledge and comfort with Hebrew in a supportive and motivating learning environment.

Collaborative members include Temple Emunah and Temple Isaiah. The affiliating synagogue is Beth El Temple Center in Belmont. Ivrit la-Kol offers courses starting with Learning to Read Hebrew, Intermediate Hebrew, and progressing up to Biblical Hebrew for Scholars.

Fundamentals of Hebrew

Learning to Read Hebrew

With Caroline Nudelman

Mondays 9-10:30am at Temple Emunah

Mondays 7:30-9:00 at Temple Isaiah

Fee: $250 members/$275 non-members

For those who are tired of reading Hebrew in transliteration and regret never having learned the Hebrew alphabet and vowels, this class is appropriate for absolute beginners who want to learn the alef bet.

Texts will be available for purchase at the first class.

Modern Hebrew Classes

Intermediate Advanced Hebrew

With Sigalit Davis

Mondays 7:30 to 9:00pm at Temple Isaiah

Fee: $250 members/$275 non-members

We will continue our Hebrew Journey & Israeli Culture with the focus on acquiring the more advanced skills & ability to use the future tense, increase vocabulary, and read Modern Israeli literature, news and other media . In addition, the student will be able view and understand current video clips of songs & articles. The emphasis is on expanding speaking skills. Students will have the opportunity to practice their writing skills by using Hebrew script. The text, Hebrew From Scratch Vol II & CD should be purchased prior to the class.

Hebrew for Travelers to Israel

With Sigalit Davis

Mondays 5:30 to 7pm at Temple Emunah

November 12, 19, 26

January 7, 14, 28

Mini-class Fee: $100

Ideal for preparing your trip to Israel, for personal and /or professional reasons or even if you just want to get acquainted with daily conversational Hebrew. This two part 3-week mini-course is designed to give non-Hebrew-speakers a chance to learn key words and phrases to help a visitor to Israel navigate basic social situations. There are no prerequisites. This will be a good introduction to the colorful and delightful modern spoken Hebrew language.

Biblical Hebrew

Advanced Beginner/Intermediate Biblical Hebrew

With Michael Singer

Thursdays 7:30 to 9:00pm at Temple Isaiah

Fee: $250 members/$275 non-members

Enjoy reading and discussing biblical Hebrew in this interactive class that will make the Tanakh come alive for you. Students are empowered to understand and translate the text of the Tanakh and the Siddur. Each class features a review of newly introduced vocabulary and grammatical concepts, and we will continue to delve deeply into the Hebrew verbal system. The ability to read Hebrew is a prerequisite for this class. We will continue through Tav is for Torah: Hebrew for Adults, Book 4 by Linda Motzkin.

Biblical Hebrew for Scholars

With Michael Singer

Sundays 8:00 to 9:30pm

at Temple Emunah

Fee: $400 members/$425 non-members

This class is for students with an advanced understanding of Biblical Hebrew. We will employ various lexica and grammars as well as advanced commentaries to aid in understanding the Hebrew text. This year we will begin by reading and discussing the "Festival Legislation" found in Exodus, Leviticus, and Deuteronomy, and compare and contrast each version of the laws. Important grammatical, literary, and historical-critical points will also be included. We may then turn to reading and discussing a group of Psalms, or compare and contrast similar texts in the Books of Samuel/Kings and Chronicles. Students may also be given the option to explore texts of their choice. This 11session course meets every other Sunday evening.

Dates will be set at the first meeting.

The faculty of Ivrit la-Kol are:

Sigalit Davis is an expert in the history and development of the Hebrew language. She has developed numerous curricula and approaches to Hebrew teaching while at Hebrew College. Born in Tel Aviv and a native Hebrew speaker, Davis has taught Hebrew and Jewish studies at many levels for more than 20 years in diverse educational settings throughout the United States. She holds a dual degree in education and Hebrew language from Hebrew University.

Caroline Nudelman earned a BA in Anthropology at the University of Pittsburgh, with a minor in Hebrew. She works at Temple Aliyah, is a private tutor and continues her ongoing study of Hebrew.

Michael A. Singer holds an MA in biblical studies from Brandeis University, and has completed work toward a PhD, also in biblical studies from Brandeis.

Mini-Classes are three sessions; others are 7 sessions/semester except "Biblical Hebrew for Scholars" which is 11 sessions.
