We gratefully acknowledge our dedicated Friends of Glatzer. Your generosity makes it possible to honor the memories of Professor Nahum and Anne Glatzer. Professor Nahum N. Glatzer was an internationally renowned scholar and teacher of Judaica. He was a disciple of Franz Rosenzweig and succeeded Martin Buber in the University of Frankfurt Chair of Jewish Philosophy and Ethics. He was a beloved member of the faculties of Brandeis University and Boston University. Anne Glatzer was a devoted teacher at the Shady Hill School. The Nahum and Anne Glatzer Memorial Fund was established by Norm and Milly Koss (z"l). New supporters are always welcome to join the growing list of Friends of Glatzer.

Glatzer Memorial Weekend 2019

With Rabbi Sharon Cohen Anisfeld March 15 and 16, 2019

Rabbi Sharon Cohen Anisfeld became President of Hebrew College in July 2018, after being appointed President-Elect in fall 2017 and serving as Acting President from January-June 2018. Rabbi Anisfeld first came to Hebrew College in 2003 as an adjunct faculty member of the Rabbinical School and then served as Dean of Students from 2005-2006. She went on to serve as Dean of the Rabbinical School for eleven years, from 2006-2017. Rabbi Anisfeld graduated from the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College in 1990, and subsequently spent 15 years working in pluralistic settings as a Hillel rabbi at Tufts, Yale and Harvard universities. She has been a regular summer faculty member for the Bronfman Youth Fellowships in Israel since 1993 and is co-editor of two volumes of women's writings on Passover, The Women's Seder Sourcebook: Rituals and Readings for Use at the Passover Seder (Jewish Lights Publishing, 2002) and The Women's Passover Companion: Women's Reflections on the Festival of Freedom (Jewish Lights Publishing, 2002). From 2011 to 2013, she was named to Newsweek's list of Top 50 Influential Rabbis in America. In 2015, Rabbi Anisfeld was named one of the 50 most influential Jews in the world by The Jerusalem Post. She writes and teaches widely, weaving together Torah, rabbinic commentary, and contemporary poetry and literature in her wise and compassionate approach to the complexities of the human experience and the search for healing and hope in a beautiful but fractured world.
