

Temple Emunah of Lexington cordially invites all women—daughters, mothers, sisters, and friends—to

Our Women's Community Seder
Women Who Dared:
Stories of Rebels and Scandals
music led by Rabbi Suri Krieger

Sunday, March 31, 2019

2 to 5 p.m.

Temple Emunah
9 Piper Road
Lexington, MA

$18 per adult

$10 per young woman under 18

This year's seder will combine music, sharing, and learning as we come together to celebrate the meaning of Passover and honor the women who defied the norms to bring about change and improve lives. We will dance, sing, and eat in the spirit of the Passover seder. Light refreshments will be served. We will once again be collecting brown rice, whole grain crackers, and tzedakah for the Jewish Family & Children Services Family Table.

Haikus

We invite you to bring a haiku reflecting either Passover traditions or rebellious women you admire to be read aloud during the seder.

A haiku is a three-line poem. The first line has 5 syllables, the second 7 syllables, and the third 5 syllables.

The Women's Community Seder is a joint program of Temple Emunah's Adult Education Committee and the Temple Emunah Sisterhood. For more information please contact Jenny Brown at jbrown68@yahoo.com.

Registration is requested by March 18, 2019.
