Join us for a Movie Matinee!

Everyone is welcome to join us at Temple Emunah on Tuesday, March 26, 2:00 PM for a movie matinee with popcorn, snacks, and friends! A chance to catch up with old friends and meet new ones in a casual, fun setting.

We will be showing the movie: The Outside Chance of Maximilian Glick. In this film A young Jewish adolescent from an overbearing family likes a Christian girl and is helped by a fun-loving rabbi. Maximilian Glick is an ordinary Jewish kid in a 1950's small town in Manitoba, Canada.

Unfortunately, he is also saddled with overbearing parents, who are intent on railroading his life to meet their expectations of him. With the new rabbi, an orthodox Jew with a unorthodox fun loving look on life, the two must find a way to fulfill their dreams and their own identities in a world that seems dead set against them doing that.

This event is part of our Daytime Programming Initiative and is sponsored by the Sisterhood.
